Plaintiff(s),

-against-

Barclays PLC, Barclays Bank PLC and Barclays Capital, Inc.

Defendant(s).

07 Civ. 6656 (AKH)

CIVIL CASE MANAGEMENT PLAN

After consultation with counsel for the parties, the following Case Management Plan is adopted. This plan is also a scheduling order pursuant to Rules 16 and 26(f) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

A. The case (is) (is not) to be tried to a jury. [Circle as appropriate].

B. Non-Expert Discovery:

1. The parties are to conduct discovery in accordance with the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and the Local Rules of the Southern District of New York. All non-expert discovery is to be completed by March 14, 2008, which date shall not be adjourned except upon a showing of good cause and further order of the Court. Interim deadlines for specific discovery activities may be extended by the parties on consent without application to the Court, provided the parties are certain that they can still meet the discovery completion date ordered by the Court.

a. The parties shall list the contemplated discovery activities and anticipated completion dates in Attachment A, annexed hereto.

2. Joinder of additional parties must be accomplished by November 16, 2007.

3. Amended pleadings may be filed without leave of the Court until November 16, 2007.

- C. For all causes of action seeking monetary damages, each party shall identify and quantify in Attachment B, annexed hereto, each component of damages alleged; or, if not known, specify and indicate by what date Attachment B shall be filed providing such information.
- D. Motions, Settlement, Second Pre-Trial Conference, and Expert Discovery:
1. Upon the conclusion of non-expert discovery, and no later than the date provided below, the parties may file dispositive motions. The parties shall agree to a schedule, and promptly submit same for the Court's approval, providing for no more than three rounds of serving and filing papers: supporting affidavits and briefs, opposing affidavits and briefs, and reply affidavits and briefs. The last day for filing dispositive motions shall be July 18, 2008. (Counsel shall insert a date 30 days after the completion date for non-expert discovery.)
 - a. There shall be no cross-motions. Any motions not made by the agreed date shall, unless the court orders otherwise, not be considered until after the timely-filed motion is determined.
 - b. Papers served and filed by the parties shall conform to the requirements set out in the Court's Individual Rules.
 2. Either before or after the motion schedule set out above, counsel for the parties shall meet for at least two hours at the office of plaintiff's counsel, to discuss settlement. The date for the meeting is July 14, 2008, at 2:00 p.m. (Counsel shall insert a date but, at the option of either, the date may be canceled upon the service or filing of a dispositive motion and notice to the court.)
 3. Approximately one week thereafter, the parties shall meet with the Court for a Second Case Management Conference to discuss the status of the case, the status and prospects of settlement and whether alternative disputes-resolution procedures should be utilized, the need for and a schedule regulating experts and expert-discovery, a discovery bar date, and any other issue counsel or the Court wish to discuss. The Case Management Conference will be held on Aug 22, 2008, at 9:30 a.m. (The Court will set this date at the Initial Case Management Conference.)
- E. Any request for relief from any date provided in this Case Management Plan shall conform to the Court's Individual Rules, and include an order, showing consents and disagreements of all counsel, setting out all dates that are likely to be affected by the granting of the relief requested, and proposed modified dates. Unless and until the Court approves the proposed order, the dates provided in this Plan shall be binding.

F. A final pre-trial conference will be held on a date to be set, as close as possible to the date that trial is expected to begin. The parties, three days before said meeting, shall submit their pre-trial order, conforming to the Court's Individual Rules and, at the conference, deliver their exhibit books containing all exhibits the parties actually intend to offer at the trial.

G. Pre-Trial Motions:

Applications for adjournments and for discovery or procedural rulings will reflect or contain the positions of all parties, as provided by the Court's Individual Rules, and are not to modify or delay the conduct of discovery or the schedules provided in this Case Management Plan except upon leave of the Court.

SO ORDERED.

DATED: New York, New York

Oct. 19, 2007

ALVIN K. HELLERSTEIN
United States District Judge

ATTACHMENT B

For all causes of action seeking monetary damages, each party shall identify and quantify each component of damages alleged:

1. PLAINTIFF'S CLAIMS:

See next page

2. COUNTERCLAIMS AND CROSS-CLAIMS:

3. THIRD-PARTY CLAIMS:

Plaintiff seeks the following:

- (1) lost wages, including salary, bonus, and equity awards, which cannot accurately be computed until plaintiff receives documents from defendant, including those concerning compensation of similarly situated employees;
- (2) front pay, which is dependent on the final back pay calculation, and the potential for reinstatement, which may change as trial approaches;
- (3) lost benefits, including equity awards, which cannot accurately be calculated until plaintiff receives documents from defendant, including those concerning benefits granted to similarly situated employees;
- (4) liquidated damages in an amount equal to the amount of lost wages;
- (5) compensatory damages for mental anguish, emotional distress, humiliation, and damage to reputation, in an amount to be determined by the jury;
- (6) punitive damages in an amount to be determined by the jury;
- (7) damages to compensate for any adverse tax consequences, which cannot be determined until the amount and structure of the award is determined;
- (8) interest; and
- (9) costs and attorneys' fees, in an amount to be determined by the Court based upon the time reasonably expended and the then-prevailing market value.
